4. REMUNERATION

4.1 For the due and punctual performance by the Service Contractor of the Duties the Body Corporate must pay to the Service Contractor the Remuneration.

4.2 If the supply of the Duties is a supply under the GST Act, the Body Corporate must pay to the Service Contractor in addition to the Remuneration, a further amount equal to the GST prevailing at the time of payment. The Service Contractor must give to the Body Corporate a tax invoice in respect of each payment of the Remuneration.

5. STAFF & ANNUAL LEAVE

5.1 The Service Contractor may, for temporary purposes only, appoint a person to act as service contractor of the Scheme ("the Alternate Service Contractor"). The Service Contractor must not appoint an Alternate Service Contractor without the written approval of the Committee, which approval must not be unreasonably withheld. The Service Contractor must satisfy the Committee that the Alternate Service Contractor is of good character and capable of discharging the Duties.

5.2 The Service Contractor may perform any of the Duties through the Alternate Service Contractor. The Service Contractor is responsible for any remuneration payable to the Alternate Service Contractor. The Service Contractor is at all times responsible for ensuring that the Alternate Service Contractor carries out the Duties.

5.3 The Service Contractor is entitled to 4 weeks leave per annum. In the Service Contractor's absence, it must temporarily appoint an Alternative Service Contractor to carry out the Duties.

6. DUTIES

6.1 The Service Contractor must carry out the Duties. If the Service Contractor is a natural person, the Duties shall be performed by the Service Contractor personally or under the supervision of the Service Contractor by an assistant or employee of the Service Contractor. Where the Service Contractor is a company, the Service Contractor must ensure that an adequate number of its employees, officers, servants or agents are available at the Scheme to carry out the Duties.

6.2 The Service Contractor must arrange and supervise contracts between the Body Corporate and independent contractors for all work of a specialist nature including without limitation:

(a) specialist repairs and maintenance of the Common Property;

(b) cleaning of external windows or parts of the Complex not easily accessed; and

(c) the provision of water, electricity, gas, fuel, telephone and other necessary services as required by the Body Corporate.

Such contracts with independent contractors will only be entered into with the prior approval of the Committee which approval must not be unreasonably withheld.

7. EXPENDITURE

7.1 The Service Contractor may incur an expense on behalf of the Body Corporate for any individual transaction for up to $2,000.00 (or more if authorised in writing by the Committee). The expense incurred must be for the purpose of obtaining goods or services used in the performance of the Duties or for such other necessary or incidental purposes as may be approved by the Committee. Any such expense shall be paid by the Body Corporate or if paid by the Service Contractor shall be reimbursed by the Body Corporate to the Service Contractor.

7.2 The Service Contractor must check and verify accounts payable by the Body Corporate relative to matters which relate to the Duties and must notify the Body Corporate's Representative as to whether such accounts are in order for payment.

8. AGENT

All things done by the Service Contractor under this Agreement are done as agent of the Body Corporate and all obligations and expenses incurred shall be to the account of the Body Corporate.

9. SERVICE CONTRACTOR'S PROMISES

The Service Contractor promises the Body Corporate that it will:

(a) at its own expense, duly and punctually comply with the provisions of:

(i) all relevant statutes;

(ii) all requirements and orders of any lawful authority in relation to the Duties or the Service Contractor's Unit; and

(iii) all By-laws and rules of the Body Corporate;

(b) not do anything to prejudice, render void or increase the premiums under the policies of insurance effected in respect of the Scheme. In addition to any other liability, the Service Contractor will pay all damage suffered by the Body Corporate and all increases of insurance premiums for a breach of this promise;

(c) use the Service Contractor's Unit only for the business of:

(i) caretaking of the Scheme; or

(ii) letting of units and storage areas in the Scheme; or

(iii) any other business which is ancillary to the uses in sub-clauses (i) and (ii) above; or

(iv) any other use authorised pursuant to the By-laws or any other agreement between the Body Corporate and the Service Contractor or Related Person;

(d) not display on the Common Property any sign unless it has first been approved of in writing by the Committee (which shall not be unreasonably withheld). Approval is not necessary for signs on the Common Property or within the Service Contractor's Unit which relate to the business being conducted by the Service Contractor, or in lots available for leasing, provided the signs are in keeping with the style and quality of the Scheme;

(e) keep that part of the Service Contractor's Unit which is used as an office or reception desk in a clean and tidy condition;

(f) not carry out the Duties in a manner or engage in activities which are or become an annoyance or disturbance to the occupiers in the Scheme;

(g) indemnify the Body Corporate against all damage and expenses which the Body Corporate may sustain by reason of any failure of the Service Contractor to observe any of the promises of this Agreement;

© HWL Ebsworth Lawyers

(h) keep insured the Service Contractor's Unit and the Service Contractor's activities with an insurance company, approved by the Body Corporate, against public risk liability for not less than $10 million;

(i) except for pool equipment, provide all tools and equipment (including specialised cleaning and rubbish removal equipment) required to carry out the Duties which remain the property of the Service Contractor.

10. BODY CORPORATE REPRESENTATIVE

10.1 The Committee must appoint a member of the Committee to give instructions to and to communicate with the Service Contractor on behalf of the Body Corporate. Not more than one person shall be appointed at any one time.

10.2 The Service Contractor must confer fully and freely with the Representative regarding the performance of the Duties. If the Representative requests, the Service Contractor must attend meetings of the Committee and members of the Body Corporate. The Service Contractor is entitled to be heard on any relevant question or matter raised at any meeting.

11. PLANS

The Body Corporate must give the Service Contractor one set of plans of the Scheme to assist the Service Contractor to perform the Duties. The plans remain the property of the Body Corporate. The plans must be returned to the Body Corporate upon determination of this Agreement.

12. POOL EQUIPMENT & CLEANING CONSUMABLES

12.1 All equipment required for the cleaning of the pool shall be provided by the Body Corporate and remain the property of the Body Corporate.

12.2 All other cleaning consumables (including those required for the pool) used by the Service Contractor in carrying out the Duties must be provided by the Body Corporate.

13. ASSIGNMENT

13.1 The Service Contractor may only assign its interest in this Agreement in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the Regulation Module.

13.2 If the proposed assignee is a company and, if required by the Committee, the directors and/or shareholders (as the Committee may elect) of that company must guarantee the promises and agreements on the part of the proposed assignee. This requirement does not apply if the assignee is a company which is listed on the Australian or other Stock Exchange or is a subsidiary of a parent company which is listed on the Australian or other Stock Exchange.

13.3 Any documentation to be prepared in respect of the assignment will be prepared by the solicitors for the Body Corporate and must contain such terms, covenants and conditions as those solicitors reasonably determine.

13.4 If the Service Contractor is a company (other than a company which, or a parent company of which is listed on a stock exchange) and there is any alteration to the board of directors or share capital of the Service Contractor, or other event which in the reasonable opinion of the Committee alters the effective control of the Service Contractor, such change of control of the Service Contractor shall be deemed to be an assignment of this Agreement and the provisions of the Act and the Regulation Module shall apply.

14. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

The dispute resolution provisions of the Act apply to this Agreement.

© HWL Ebsworth Lawyers

15. TERMINATION

15.1 The Body Corporate may, following resolution of the Body Corporate at general meeting, terminate this Agreement by giving the Service Contractor a notice in writing if either the Service Contractor or a Related Person to the Service Contractor:

(a) assigns or attempts to assign the benefit of this Agreement in breach of this Agreement;

(b) ceases to have a right to occupy the Service Contractor's Unit (if any);

(c) has the appointment as agent under the letting agreement with the Body Corporate (if any) terminated for any reason;

(d) neglects to carry out any of its Duties for a period of 90 days after notice in writing is given to the Service Contractor specifying the duty which the Service Contractor has neglected to carry out and calling upon the Service Contractor to perform such duty; and

(e) is convicted of any indictable offence and sentenced to any term of imprisonment, or fined in excess of $100,000.00.

16. NOTICES

16.1 Notices under this Agreement may be signed by a party or its solicitor.

16.2 Notices are effectively given if:

(a) delivered or posted to the other party or its solicitor; or

(b) sent to the facsimile number of the other party or its solicitor.

16.3 Posted notices will be treated as given 3 days after posting.

16.4 Notices sent by facsimile will be treated as given when the sender obtains a clear transmission report.

16.5 Notices by a party's solicitor to the other party or its solicitor will be treated as given with the first party's authority.

17. SEVERANCE

Any void, voidable or illegal term of this Agreement may be severed unless to do so will result in a change to the basic nature of this Agreement.

18. WAIVER

18.1 A party's failure or delay to exercise a power or right does not operate as a waiver of that power or right.

18.2 The exercise of a power or right does not preclude either its exercise in the future or the exercise of any other power or right.

18.3 A waiver is not effective unless it is in writing.

18.4 Waiver of a power or right is effective only in respect of the specific instance to which it relates and for the specific purpose for which it is given.

19. VARIATION

An amendment or variation to this Agreement is not effective unless it is in writing and signed by the parties.

20. APPLICABLE LAW

Queensland Law applies to this Agreement.

21. NO MERGER

No act done or document signed in connection with this Agreement prevents any provision to which effect has not fully been given from continuing to have full force and effect, or as a merger of any of the powers, rights and remedies of the parties to which effect has not been fully given.

22. COSTS

22.1 Each party must pay its own costs of this Agreement. Transfer duty assessed on this Agreement shall be paid by the Service Contractor.

22.2 A defaulting party must pay to the other party all costs (including legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis) which are reasonably incurred by the other party in connection with such default. Legal costs are deemed to have been reasonably incurred in the obtaining of advice, the attempted exercise of any power, remedy or rights, the actual exercise of any power, remedy or rights, or the institution or prosecution of proceedings in respect of any default.

23. AUTHORITY TO DATE AND COMPLETE

The Service Contractor authorises every member of the Committee and the solicitors for the Body Corporate to do all or any of the following things:

(a) to date or complete any blank spaces in this Agreement; and

(b) to complete and sign any document necessary to stamp or register this Agreement.

24. AGREEMENT TO SUPERSEDE ANY PREVIOUS AGREEMENTS

This Agreement supersedes any previous agreement (whether written or oral) between the parties touching or concerning any of the matters or similar matters to those matters dealt with in this Agreement.

25. GUARANTEE AND INDEMNITY

25.1 This clause applies if the Service Contractor:

(a) is a company;

(b) is a company trustee of a trust; or

(c) is an individual trustee of a trust.

25.2 If this clause applies, the Service Contractor must arrange that its performance under this Agreement is guaranteed by:

(a) in the case of the Service Contractor being a company, the directors of the company, and if required by the Body Corporate, the shareholders of the company;

© HWL Ebsworth Lawyers

(b) in the case of the Service Contractor being a company and a trustee of a trust, the directors of the company, and if required by the Body Corporate, the shareholders of the company and the principal beneficiaries of the trust; and

(c) in the case of the Service Contractor being an individual trustee of a trust, the Service Contractor in its personal capacity and, if required by the Body Corporate, the principal beneficiaries of the trust.

25.3 The guarantee will be in the form of the Guarantee and Indemnity attached to this Agreement.

25.4 Notwithstanding sub-clause 1, this clause does not apply if the Service Contractor is a company which is listed on the Australian or other Stock Exchange or is a subsidiary of a parent company which is listed on the Australian or other Stock Exchange.

26. EXCLUSIVITY

26.1 During this Agreement the Body Corporate shall not:

(a) authorise any person to, or permit any of its staff to, or itself conduct within the Scheme any business of the same or similar nature as the Service Contractor may conduct pursuant to this Agreement; or

(b) licence or lease any part of the Common Property for the purpose of any such business.

26.2 If any person other than the Service Contractor attempts to use any part of the Common Property for the purpose of conducting a business or rendering a service in competition with the business the Service Contractor carries on pursuant to this Agreement, then the Body Corporate must use all reasonable endeavours to effect a termination of the competing business or service.

27. OCCUPATION AUTHORITY

Pursuant to Section 134 of the Regulation Module, the Body Corporate grants to the Service Contractor the exclusive right to occupy the areas described as M1, M2 and M3 on the attached sketch plan for the purposes associated with carrying out the Duties.
